WORK EXPERIENCE

FALMOUTH PUBLISHING, INC. (2021-PRESENT)

Editor — The Bourne Enterprise (July 2022-Present)

- Maintains editorial oversight of a local weekly newspaper covering a coastal town with a population of around 20k (nearly doubles during summer!)
- Manages a small but mighty staff with efficiency while maintaining both empathy and ethics
- Collaborates with editorial staff to brainstorm fresh story ideas, to implement optimal newsroom practices and innovative approaches, and to identify and embrace new areas for growth and/or change
- Writes weekly editorials on local topics, reports on various beats including the school district, historic preservation, and community issues
- Builds community connections and fosters strong working relationships with local sources, elected officials, experts, and community members, specifically seeking out marginalized voices and stories to fully represent the area's demographics
- Engages with readers and the broader community to have a better cultural awareness of the local priorities and issues
- Maintains strong communication and effective teamwork with entire newsroom and editorial board staff
- Manages, oversees, and continuing to develop our newsroom's intern program to work with area high schoolers looking to pursue journalism

Editor — The Upper Cape Catch Podcast (December 2023-Present)

- Maintains editorial oversight of our newsroom podcast, covering a vast range of topics throughout the four Upper Cape Cod towns and beyond
- Works hands-on with podcast co-founders/hosts to identify, develop, research, and produce news audio content on a weekly basis
- Develops marketing and promotion strategies for podcast in collaboration with sales, design, and business departments
- Contributes as both occasional host and guest/interviewee
- Currently working to develop a social media presence on various social networks

Reporter — The Falmouth Enterprise (June 2021-July 2022)

- Pitched, researched, wrote and reported news and feature stories for a weekly print and digital local newspaper on Cape Cod
- Was named the New England Newspaper & Press Association's Rookie Of The Year for outstanding work during my breakout year as a reporter
- Covered various beats, including environment, local government/politics, education, public health, community issues and housing and development
- Developed and maintained positive working relationships with local sources and community members, established a name for myself as a well-known reporter in town
- Contributed news photographs, video and podcast content
- Managed the Enterprise's social media accounts for all four newspapers on all major social networks, created and posted regular news content
